

BE A VOICE™ FOR LIFE

"In the mid-1990s, I was living with my family in the urban area of a smaller city in the Midwest. My husband and I had two small sons and were actively involved in neighborhood ministry and in our church. Life was good.

"But then I became pregnant through a traumatic event, and the world that had always seemed so safe and secure suddenly was turned upside down.

"At first, I dreaded going to church. I was convinced that the people there would no longer see me as 'Heather, the worship coordinator' but through the lens of what had happened to me. I was wrong.

"My brothers and sisters in Christ embraced me wholeheartedly and sought to meet every conceivable need. They loved me so much there was no longer room for bitterness or shame.

"Nine months later, I gave birth to my beautiful daughter Rachael, whose life is a continual reminder that God can always bring beauty and hope out of life's most difficult circumstances."

Every preborn baby is priceless, no matter what the circumstances of his or her conception. The Lord uses people to proclaim that truth — people like Heather, people like you.
