

BE A VOICE™ FOR COMPASSION

"When I was just 15, my girlfriend and I got sexually involved—and in spite of so-called 'safe sex,' she got pregnant. We couldn't see a baby—just a problem. So, my girlfriend had an abortion. Then, grieving and angry, she broke up with me. My guilt was so terrible that I turned to alcohol to shut out thoughts of suicide. But four years later, I woke up one night knowing it was time to deal with what I'd done. All night long, through prayer and searching the Scriptures, I wrestled with God. Finally, freedom came: I knew He had forgiven me. But I will never forget the pain—or the baby I couldn't see."

The Lord wants men like Steffen to receive His forgiveness and healing. But He works through His people—people like you.

Will you be a voice for compassion?

BEAVOICE.NET