

Time to Stop

by Charlotte Adelsperger
art by Ela Jarzabec

The sun stops sliding down the sky.
It's night.

Mom's phone stops ringing in her purse.
It's quiet.

The TV stops flickering pictures.
It's off.

Our dog stops wagging his tail.
He's snoring.

My sister stops playing with her dolls.
It's bedtime.

I stop brushing my teeth.
They're clean.

My mom stops reading me a story.
It's "The End."

We close our eyes and talk to God.
He's near. 🌈

Never Stops

God's love for you doesn't stop.
He thinks about you all the time.
When you go to bed, pray
to Him and say:

God, You know all about me
because You made me.
I can talk to You about anything!

I want to tell You

I want to thank You for

I want to ask You

Amen.
