

Gather your family
for fun games—
Odyssey style!

Bye Bulls Toe Ease

Do you like sounding foolish?

Probably not. But when you do it on purpose, it can be a lot of fun!

For this game, all of the correct answers come from the Bible. (They usually do, right!?) Start by picking one person to read these silly sounding sample sentences.

Have that person read the words in several different ways. Then everybody tries to guess the right answer.

It could be a person, place or story from God's Word.

Once your family figures out the samples (the answers are at the bottom of this page), cut up the rest of these messed-up clues.

Put them in a hat and have each family member take turns reading. The person who correctly guesses the most wins.

Samples:

- toe era bad bell
- heroes ache in (Hint: Think Easter)

Now that you get it, you're ready to play.

1 cue we net star	2 no has hark	3 to miss hemp tea	4 saw love terse us
5 day kneel end dull ions din	6 bay beach ease us	7 chose if fan hiss broth airs	8 any knight is band sap fire raw
9 ten pill huff chair ooze a lamb	10 a broth hammock ice hack	11 tempt legs oft egg chip	12 mare Riyadh deck Ross

Acting Out

Acting out at the dinner table is never a good idea.

But acting out after dinner can be a lot of fun. Follow the rules from the classic game charades to see if you can make your family guess the titles of these Adventures in Odyssey episodes.

Gather

- a timing device
- notepad and pencil
- hat

1. Cut out all the episode titles on this page. If you don't want to cut your magazine, make a copy. Try not to read the titles as you cut them out or have somebody who's not playing the game cut them out for you.
2. Divide into two teams.
3. Have one person from Team A pick an Adventures in Odyssey episode. He or she gets three minutes to make their team guess the title.
4. Team B watches the timer and stops the guessing after three minutes.
5. A team earns five points for every correct answer.
6. Now Team B gets to pick a title and guess.
7. Remember: You can't make any sounds or say any words in charades. You can hold up your fingers to show the number of words in the title and to indicate which word you are acting out. So for "The Boy Who Didn't Go to Church," you'd hold up seven fingers to show the length of the title and then hold up two fingers to indicate you were first acting out the word boy. If your family can't guess the words, act out a scene from the episode. Have fun!
