"I want to know Christ better. Yes, I want to know the power that raised him from the dead." —Philippians 3:10, NIrV

After your child or grandchild has read the magazine, go through these questions as a family.

Hope in Hard Times (p. 5)

1. Samuel faced a scary cancer diagnosis. Can you think of a hard time when you had to trust God?
2. Samuel said, “No matter how big or small your situation is, our God is infinitely bigger.” Do you agree? Is it ever hard for you to believe God is in control? Why or why not?
3. What helps you trust God? List three ways you can strengthen your “trust muscles.”

God Holds the Reins (pp. 6-7)

1. God is omniscient, omnipotent, omnipresent and omnibenevolent. What do these words mean, and which one is most encouraging to you?
2. Read Psalm 139:1-10 together. Do you feel like you belong to God? Why or why not?
3. How has God been good to you? Take a minute to thank Him.

The Fabric of Giving (pp. 23-23)

1. Has anything bad happened to your friends, neighbors or community lately? Can you think of ways to help?
2. Holli dreamed of sewing 1,200 masks. What are your dreams? Do you think your dreams are big enough, knowing the all-powerful God gives you strength?
3. Holli’s sewing machine broke before she finished. Why do you think setbacks pop up, even when we do good work? How can God use setbacks to prove His faithfulness?

The Disciples’ Dinner (pp. 20-21)

1. What was Jesus trying to teach the disciples by washing their feet? Why is serving others so important?

Family Prayer: Did you notice the dedication prayer on page 7? Easter is a good time for all of us, young and old, to commit to living for our first love—God.

Dear Jesus, we are sorry for not following You with our whole hearts. Please forgive us, Lord and Savior. Open our eyes to Your power and strengthen our trust. We commit our lives to Your name in Jesus’ name. Amen.
