

Five Reasons to Pray — from God's Word

Wives and moms are nurturers by nature. They often pray for everyone else's needs, but not so much for themselves. But if women can learn how to pray diligently for themselves and others, they will see God move in powerful ways.

- God asked you to pray (Romans 12:12) — “Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer.”
- God wants to know you (Proverbs 8:17) — “I love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently find me.”
- God has given you everything you need (2 Peter 1:3) — “His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence...”
- God wants to give to you abundantly (John 10:10b) — “...I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”
- God answers prayer (John 16:24) — “Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full.”
