Freedoms	Boundaries
Use your own judgment in keeping your room as clean or dirty as you see fit.	• Do your own laundry. • No food in your room. • No odors beyond your room.
Use your own judgment in the choice of music you listen to.	• Must guard access by younger siblings. • Use headphones when asked.
Use your own judgment in deciding when to go to bed.	• In your room and quiet by ____:____ • All screens off by ____:____ • Wake yourself up and be ready on time. • Parents will not help with fatigue related problems.
Use your own judgment in handling school as long as minimum grades are maintained.	• Privileges may be suspended if grades drop below minimum.

©2024 Focus on the Family

Freedoms	Boundaries
Use your own judgment in setting style of dress.	• Parents may still limit provocative dress. • Parents won't pay extra for objectionable clothes.
Use your own judgment in where to attend church.	• Parents may still require attendance at a Christian church. • Find your own transportation.
Use your own judgment in choosing friends.	• Certain friends may not be allowed in our home. • Friends are not an excuse for being late.
Use your own judgment in deciding when to come in at night.	• Should respect parents' and household's need for sleep.

