

In Malaysia: FOR FAMILIES WHO ARE STILL BECOMING

“YOU ARE DEFINITELY MY PRECIOUS GIFT FROM GOD.”

In a ballroom filled with laughter, nerves, and healing, one father in Malaysia looked into his daughter's eyes and spoke these simple but powerful words. She reached for his hand, and together they stepped into a moment that would begin to rewrite years of pain.

For 11 years, this dad had been separated from his daughter because of divorce. “I missed all the golden moments,” he confessed through tears. But at Date with Dad, a milestone event hosted by Focus on the Family Malaysia, they found space to reconnect—not in perfection, but in progress.

EXPERIENCE IT FOR YOURSELF:

Watch this moving moment to see how meaningful connection is being restored across generations.

“
WE ARE NEVER PERFECT,
BUT WE HAVE LEARNED TO CONFESS OUR MISTAKES AND OUR WRONGDOINGS AND
FOCUS ON DOING THINGS RIGHT.”

This is what Focus on the Family is all about: to walk alongside families in every season—through the broken and the beautiful, the hard and the hopeful, so they can thrive.

At Date with Dad, fathers and daughters gather to mark a young woman's journey into adulthood through meaningful conversation, handwritten letters, and time set aside just for them. Every family comes with its own story—some close, some distant, all in process.

“BY GOD’S GRACE, WE ARE HERE TONIGHT.”

This father showed up uncertain. He left changed. “By God’s grace, we are here tonight,” he said, voice trembling. “And I trust there are more nights ahead”, he continued.

So moved by the transformation in his own family, this dad decided to support the ministry of Focus to help other families find this kind of connection as well.

Beyond Malaysia, extending across Focus on the Family Offices throughout the Asia region, connection events like this one are helping families rediscover each other, experience healing, and draw closer to God. Whether it’s a Mom & Daughter Connection, Father & Son Adventure Camp, or this powerful Date with Dad, these events aren’t about having it all figured out. They’re about taking a step forward—together.

Families around the world are reconnecting
